I have told the person I am making this nomination and they have agreed for their personal details and information to be shared with you for this purpose. They are also aware that photographs taken at the event of the short-listed volunteers are used in various media including Volunteer Cornwall’s website.

I wish to submit my nomination and confirm that to the best of my knowledge the details given in support of this nomination are accurate.

I consent to the information I provide herein being held and used by Volunteer Cornwall and its partners for the legitimate purposes of the Cornwall Celebrates Volunteering event and for no other purpose. All such information will be handled, stored, shared and disposed of only in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998.

I understand that the selection panel’s decision is final and that no correspondence will be entered into.

If you have not heard from us by 31 October unfortunately your volunteer was not short-listed this year, but he/she will receive a certificate and letter of thanks from us in December.

Please turn over and tell us the ‘story’ of the person you would like to nominate

NOMINATION

In no more than 500 words, please outline the reasons this person deserves recognition in the category they are being nominated for.

Include the time spent volunteering compared to time available, barriers they have overcome, how they have helped others to volunteer, any achievements, successes or projects they have worked on.

If you are still unsure how to put your nomination together you could take a look at the video case studies from previous years on our website <https://www.youtube.com/user/VolunteerCornwall/videos>

Please make sure you have completed both sides of the form, signed and dated it. For postal nominations please send to:
